PARMESAN POLENTA BITES

SERVES: 28

TOTAL TIME: 100 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

400ml vegetable stock

150g quick cook polenta plus extra for dusting

½ tsp dried thyme

40g Parmesan cheese, finely grated

Salt and pepper

Olive oil

FOR THE CANAPÉS

Parmesan cheese shavings

14 red grapes

Small handful of rocket

Balsamic vinegar, to serve

INSTRUCTIONS

Begin by preheating your oven to 200°C/400°F/gas 6.

Meanwhile make the polenta. It helps if you have all the ingredients prepared and weighed out before you start and grease and line a 1kg bread tin.

Bring 400ml stock to boil, then pour in the polenta and stir until the polenta thickens, then add the thyme, grated parmesan, and season the mixture with salt and pepper to taste.

Pour the polenta into the loaf tin so that is around 1½cm deep. Allow to cool for 5 minutes or so before chilling in the fridge for around an hour until firm.

Remove the polenta from the tin and cut into 28 even sized cubes. Arrange the cubes on a lined baking sheet, then brush with olive oil. Shake over 2 more tbsp of polenta and turn the cubes to coat evenly.

Bake in the oven for around 30 minutes until firm, crispy and darkened all over.

Allow to cool for 5 minutes, then with a cocktail stick, secure a shaving of parmesan and a rocket leaf or two to the top of each polenta cube, then slide a red grape onto the stick.

Arrange on a serving dish, and serve with balsamic vinegar on the side for dipping

Season the salmon fillets with salt and pepper on both sides. Add 25g of the flour to a shallow dish; dredge the salmon in the flour to evenly coat and shake off any excess.

Melt 1 tbsp of butter and 1 tbsp oil in a large non-stick pan over medium-high heat.

Sear the salmon for 4 minutes on each side or until cooked to your liking. Transfer to a warm plate cover with foil and set aside.

Melt the remaining 1 tbsp butter in the pan and sauté the garlic until fragrant. Add the wine and bring to a boil while deglazing the bottom of the pan. Cook until the liquid is almost evaporated, stirring occasionally.

Add 80ml of stock to the pan along with the lemon juice, bring to a boil and cook for a further 3 minutes.

Whisk the cornstarch together with the reserved stock. Pour the mixture into the pan, stirring through the liquid to create a sauce. Cook until slightly thickened then remove from heat.

Stir the capers through the sauce then place the salmon fillets back into the pan, gently turning each fillet to evenly coat in the sauce.

Sprinkle with chopped parsley and serve.

1 tsp salt
½ tsp chili powder
50g finely chopped onion
3 cloves garlic, minced
200g uncooked quinoa
¼ tsp cayenne pepper
470ml low-sodium chicken broth

In a large non-stick pan with a tight-fitting lid, heat 2 tsp of the olive oil over medium high. Add the prawns, then sprinkle with ½ tsp salt and ¼ tsp chili powder. Sauté until the shrimp are pink and cooked through, then immediately remove to a plate so they don't overcook.

Stir to coat the quinoa with the oil and allow to brown for 2 minutes. Pour in the chicken stock and bring to a boil. Cover and reduce the heat to a simmer for 12 to 15 minutes until the quinoa is tender. Uncover and fluff with a fork.

Zest the lemon directly into the pan, then juice the lemon and add the lemon juice and parsley to the pan as well. Toss to combine, then top with the prawns.

Napoleon had a lot to do with the invention of the chocolate hazelnut combo.

LOW CARB CHOC HAZELNUT BARS

SERVES: 16

TOTAL TIME: 35 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

296g blanched almond flour
115g Erythritol or granular sweetener of choice
75g coconut oil
1 tsp vanilla extract
125g sugar-free chocolate hazelnut spread

INSTRUCTIONS

Begin by preheating your oven to 180°C/350°F/gas 4 and lining a 23 x 23cm baking pan with parchment or greaseproof paper.

Meanwhile stir together the almond flour and sweetener. Melt and add the coconut oil and then the vanilla extract. Stir until well combined.

Press $\frac{2}{3}$ to $\frac{3}{4}$ of the dough into the lined pan (you want to just form enough of a crust to cover the bottom of the pan but keep at least $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{3}$ which will be used for the topping).

Bake for 10-15 minutes until golden at the edges, remove from the oven and allow to become cool and firm to the touch.

Heat the chocolate spread slightly to make it more liquid, and drizzle over the crust. Spread evenly with a spatula or back of a warmed spoon.

Break up the remaining dough into crumbles and sprinkle over the top.

Pop back into the oven for 10-15 minutes, until the crumbles begin to turn golden.

Allow to cool completely in the pan before cutting into 16 bars and serving.

APPLE TARTS

SERVES: 12

TOTAL TIME: 55 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

FOR THE CRUST

- 300g all-purpose flour
- 1 scoop oatmeal cookie whey protein powder
- 1 tsp table salt
- 1 cup shortening
- ½ cup water

FOR THE FILLING

- 6 medium apples, cored and peeled
- 3 tbsp natural peanut butter
- 1 scoop oatmeal cookie whey protein powder
- 20g raw oats,
- 1 tbsp granulated sugar
- 2 tsp cinnamon

INSTRUCTIONS

Begin by preheating your oven to 180°C/350°F/gas 4.

Meanwhile dice the apples and coat with lemon juice to stop them going brown.

Next make the crust: whisk together the flour, 1 scoop of whey protein, and salt in a large bowl. Cut in the shortening until crumbly. Gradually add the water, mixing just enough to form a ball of dough. Cover and chill in the fridge for at least 30 minutes or until easy to handle.

Then make the filling: Place the diced apples in a large bowl. Mix the peanut butter, 1 scoop of whey, oats, sugar, and cinnamon, then set aside.

Next on a lightly floured surface, roll the chilled dough out until it's approximately ½cm thick.

Cut out circles of dough and press into the cups of a greased muffin tin. Spoon the apple mixture into the wells and crimp the edges with a fork or your fingers.

Bake for 20-25 minutes or until apples are tender and the pastry is golden.

Serve warm.

A light blue ceramic bowl with a pink and white zigzag pattern around the base, filled with several round, chocolate-covered chickpeas. One chickpea is broken in half, revealing a light brown, textured filling with small dark specks. The bowl sits on a light-colored, speckled surface. A few more chocolate-covered chickpeas are scattered around the bowl, and some chocolate shavings are visible on the surface in the foreground.

There are also
black, green,
red and brown
chickpeas.

COOKIE DOUGH BITES

SERVES: 28

TOTAL TIME: 22 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

425g tinned chickpeas, rinsed and drained
30g vanilla vegan protein powder
2 tbsp almond or cashew butter
1 tbsp coconut sugar
1 tsp vanilla extract
1/8 tsp sea salt
2 tbsp chocolate chips

FOR THE CHOCOLATE COATING

130g dark chocolate chips
3 tsp coconut oil

INSTRUCTIONS

Blend the chickpeas in a food processor until they start to turn smooth.

Add all the remaining ingredients (protein powder, nut butter, coconut sugar, vanilla, sea salt) and process until a ball of dough forms.

Use a rubber spatula to break the dough up a bit, then add the chocolate chips and pulse a couple of times, making sure the chips evenly dispersed in the dough.

Remove the dough from the processor then (using a generous 1/2 tbsp amount), roll into balls and place on a small parchment paper-lined baking sheet. Place in the fridge to chill for 10-15 minutes.

Meanwhile make the coating. Melt the chocolate and oil in a bowl over a pan of warm water or by placing in a microwave-safe bowl and heating for 1 minute and then in 30 second increments until chocolate is fully melted.

Use a fork or cocktail stick to dip each ball into the melted chocolate. Allow the excess to drip off before arranging on a parchment lined baking sheet.

Place in the fridge or freezer to set until ready to eat.
